SELECT DRAFT BILL APPROVED BY CONGRESS

Passes Senate 68 to 19;
House 313 to 109—Age
Limit Likely 21 to 40.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—By overwhelming majorities both the Senate and House late Saturday night passed the administration bill to raise an army by selective draft. The final rollcall brought into line behind the bill many Senators and Representatives who had fought for the volunteer amendments earlier in the day has completed plans for carry it into effect.

The Senate which had voted down the volunteer plan 69 to 18, passed the bill by a vote of 81 to 8. In the House the vote against the volunteer plan was 313 to 109 and that by which the bill itself was passed was 397 to 24.

As passed by the Senate the measure provides for the draft of men between the ages of 21 and 27 years, while in the House measure, the age limits are fixed at 21 and 40. This and lesser discrepancies will be threshed out in conference early next week so that the bill will be in the hands of President Wilson as quickly as possible. The War Department already has completed plans for carryin it into effect.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Officials of this Government have told the British commissioners now in this country that a settlement of the Irish question would strengthen the friendly feeling between America and England.

An appeal for all parties to throw aside all differences and settle the Irish question was made by Premier Lloyd George in a speech at Guildhall Friday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—American staff officers oppose vigorously any suggestion that a small expeditionary force be sent to Europe for its moral effect. They want time to have the army well trained and adequately equipped so that when the time comes for sending men their weight will be immediately felt.

LONDON, April 30.—A grave warning that the submarine menace may be an important factor in deciding the outcome of the war was sounded by Sir Albert Stanley, president of the British Board of Trade. Addressing a luncheon of business men, Sir Albert said: "We have not yet found a way of dealing with the submarine so as to remove the danger of their being an enormously important factor in determining the outcome of the war. The effect of the submarine war upon the existence of the British empire is simply this—that we can not continue to bring into this country all the supplies and materials required for our existence, for the continuance of the war and for the actual needs of our industries."

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Official advice to the State Department said the Mexican government had warned Germans in Mexico that any concentration of Germans near the American border will be followed immediately by their arrest.

In conveying this notice the Mexican authorities explained that they could do no less in view of the fact that a state of war existed between Germany and the United States.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Lieutenant William F. Gresham, who commanded the naval gun crew on the American merchant steamer Aztec, when she was sunk off Brest, made his report in person to Secretary Daniels, and left an impression that the vessel probably was destroyed by a mine. Unofficial reports had indicated that she was torpedoed, although Lieutenant Gresham told the Secretary that he had seen nothing to indicate the presence of a submarine.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—With enactment of the Selective Draft Army Bill apparently assured, the War Department is preparing to put machinery in motion without delay to produce a trained army of 2,000,000 men. It is expected that within ten days in every town in the country registration of young men for duty will be put in motion, and no man liable for registration will have a good excuse for failure to respond, it is stated. Work will begin at once on the sixteen camps proposed for training.

FOR THE CIVIC LEAGUE.

There is an ordinance on the city's books requiring telephone and telegraph poles in the city to be painted. This has apparently been neglected for some years, as the poles are as innocent of paint as a new born babe.

The suggestion has also been made that the city remove the old gas posts from the streets. Their days of usefulness are over and they are anything but ornamental.

All of which is respectfully submitted for the consideration of the ladies of the Civic League.

GAME WARDENS SURPRISE BAND OF "GIGGERS."

It will be hard to find a set of sportsmen or game wardens who are always on the job than Bourbon county can boast.

Saturday night Game Warden Douglas Thomas, Sr., received information that a band of men were "giggling" fish on Stoner Creek, near the Clay farm. Hastily securing his shot gun and summoning Mr. Thomas Henry Clay, Jr., and Mr. James D. McClintock, members of the Bourbon County Fish and Game Club, Mr. Thomas and his party made a detour through the fields, in mud almost ankle deep, and arrived on the scene where the men were said to have been "giggling" or spearing fish.

When they emerged from their hiding places they saw lights from lanterns in the hands of the men fitting from place to place, very intent upon their work. The officers made a detour and coming through the field, ahead of the men, stepped out, Mr. Thomas covering the men with his shotgun.

No resistance was made by the supposed "giggers," and the officers started an investigation. The alleged "giggers" proved to be a party of bricklayers, who were fishing for catfish. Their poles had been "set" in the bank while the men with lanterns, went from one to another pole, inspecting them for possible catches. The lights flickering up and down the bank led someone to the supposition that it was a band of "giggers."

Mr. Thomas and his "posse" made their apologies to the men who had some fun at their expense, and returned to Paris.

ANOTHER "PLOTTER."

Mr. I. C. Swain, of the Cumberland Telephone Co., while inspecting the Company's poles and lines in the vicinity of Wade's Mills, near the Clark and Bourbon line, Friday morning, aroused the suspicion of a number of residents, who suspected him of being a German spy.

They called up Mr. A. J. Miller, local manager of the Winchester office, and asked him in regard to the matter. It took considerable eloquence and patience on the part of Manager Miller to convince the irate and excited citizens that their suspicions were unfounded, and that Mr. Swain was an authorized employee of the Cumberland Co., there on legitimate business.

Verily, it is getting to be dangerous to be safe—especially if you happen to look like a Teuton or be acting a little differently!

Ganfield, president of Central University at Danville, was the principal speaker of the evening at the banquet given Saturday evening at the Presbyterian manse, on Duncan avenue, to the boys of the Presbyterian and Christian churches of this city, between the ages of fifteen and nineteen years. The evening was one of enjoyment to all. Hon. E. M. Dickinson officiated as toastmaster.

Mr. Dickinson introduced the other speakers, who were Messrs. Peale Collier, David Cline, Clark White and Eugene Lair. Mr. Clay Sutherland rendered a number of vocal selections, while vocal and instrumental selections, both sentimental and patriotic, were given by members of the Signal Corps and the Kentucky National Guard, stationed here.

A three-course luncheon was served, with a number of attractive young ladies acting as waitresses. The tables were beautifully decorated with lilacs and all the appointments were perfect.

GENERAL J. FRANKLIN BELL A VISITOR IN PARIS

Guest of His Cousin, J. W.
Bell, Sunday, En Route To Lexington.

For a part of the day Sunday, Paris held as a visitor one of the most distinguished officers of the United States Army in the person of General Franklin Bell.

Gen. Bell, who was enroute from San Francisco to Governor's Island, New York, to assume command of the Department of the East, stopped over in Paris for a visit to his cousin, J. W. Bell, who resides on the Bethlehem pike, near Paris. Gen. Bell was accompanied by his wife.

Gen. Bell is a native of Shelbyville. He succeeded Maj. Gen. Leonard Wool as Commander of the Department of the East. His first stop was in Louisville, where he was a guest of relatives, thence to his old home in Shelbyville, from where he was accompanied to Paris by Mr. J. W. Bell. After a short visit there Gen. and Mrs. Bell proceeded to Lexington, where he inspected the mobilization camps. He will reach New York some time this afternoon.

Owing to the restrictions placed upon army officials Gen. Bell, during his visit here did not mention military affairs in any way whatever.

GETS $50,000 FROM $750 INVESTMENT.

An investment of $750 made some time ago in Kentucky oil fields brought recently returns of $50,000 to Mr. John McClintock, of Huntington, West Virginia, a brother of Mrs. Chas. N. Fihlan, of Paris, and formerly a resident of the Hutchison neighborhood.

The purchasers are Ralph Hocks, tetter and George A. Foreman, who are principal owners of the Southwestern Oil Company, whose main offices are located in Buffalo, New York. The company is represented in Kentucky by W. J. Flesher.

The property in which Mr. McClintock invested his $750 was a typical mountain farm, in the Pilot district of the Estill county oil fields, containing 100 acres. Only the oil and gas rights were sold, the farm being held in fee by Mr. Hubert Sparks, who retains one-eighth interest in the oil and gas rights. Other than the oil and gas rights the farm is said to be suitable for raising Angora goats, staves, blackberries and chickens.

Mr. McClintock received a check for $40,000, and $10,000 in cash in return for his $750 investment. The price paid of $500 per acre is said to be the highest bonus deal on undeveloped holdings thus far in Kentucky.

COURT APPOINTMENTS.

In the County Court, Mr. William Grannan was appointed, and qualified as executor of the estate of his mother, Mrs. Anna Grannan, who died at her home in this city several weeks ago. Mr. Grannan gave bond in the sum of $2,000.

Mr. Jos. H. Ewalt also qualified as administrator of the estate of the late Miss Mattie Keller. Mr. Ewalt gave bond in the sum of $1,000, with Mr. Jacob Keller as surety. Messrs. Chas. LaRue, Walker B. Kiser and Roger Curent were appointed to appraise the estate.

PARIS BOY GETS MEDAL.

In the list of awards made by the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission recently appears the name of Alexander Rice, Jr., of Paris, who will receive a bronze medal and the sum of $1,600 for educational purposes from the commission as soon as the proper details are completed.

About two years ago young Rice rescued a drowning companion, Jas. K. Smith, aged thirteen years, a schoolmate. Smith, with a party of boys, had been in bathing in the mill pond of the Paris Milling Co., when he fell from the dam into the swifter part of the current. He tried to swim out, but was caught in an eddy and carried back under the swiftly running waters. Rice came to the drowning boy's assistance, and after diving several times, located him, and brought him safely to shore after swimming seventy-five feet through swift waters with his burden. Some years previous to this Rice saved a boy named Garland Neal, who had broken through the ice while skating, and would have drowned but for the timely rescue by Rice.

The Town Beautiful Movement.

There is too much of the spirit to day of "Let George Do It." There is too little willingness to take hold and co-operate personally in attempts at civic improvement.

The pioneers made their place beautiful by getting out with spade and watering pot, and planting whole rows of trees along the streets. They were amply repaid, in enjoyment of the beauty they created, and in better value of real estate. Nowadays this is left to public officials. Instead of getting out themselves and planting trees citizens will call up the proper official and ask him why he does not set out something on their streets.

Improvements that have to wait on public funds wait long. The appropriation is usually exhausted, and politicians see other uses for money.

Neatness is not exactly beauty, but there can be no beauty without neatness. Every piece of paper set adrift, every heap of rubbish, lowers the tone of a town, and helps create the spirit of disorder. People are governed by the influence of neighbors. If one man cleans up and gains up, the spirit of improvement sweeps through the whole street. If he lets things go ragged, his neighbors fall easily into the slovenly habit of letting well enough alone.

Town beauty is not created by elaborate mansions or choicely designed business blocks. It is made by the transplanting and careful tending of green foliage and flowers within town limits, by elimination of eye sores, by good taste in building, and removal of disorder. Paris has done much along this line, but there are many things to be achieved to enable it fully to realize the ideal of the Town Beautiful.

"Baby Week."

It is perhaps not considered the province of the editor to discuss such supposedly woman's column subjects as the above. The traditional woman's page, too often prepared by a shirt-sleeved man smoking a smelly black pipe, rarely deceives womankind. But even the lords of creation may well ponder over many subjects discussed in what has been called "Baby Week." This was established for the second week in May by the Baby Bureau of the U. S. Labor Department.

In tenement districts of large manufacturing towns, the baby question seems very vital. The sight of so many anaemic children does not promise well for community well being.

Probably they have been undernourished since birth. Many of them are born of immigrants of the Old World, where substantial food was abundant and cheap. The parents came over here abounding in health and animal spirits. Finding prices high, they economize on wholesome foods. In a short time the color fades out of their faces. The children suffer even more, not having had any earlier foundation of health to help them stand the strain.

Social workers say the food given such infants is pitiful to see. Mothers who nurse their own offspring may lack vital elements of sustenance. Many babies are given thin soups, coffee, cheap fruits and vegetables, about the same food the grown-ups get. If nourishing it may be utterly unfit for their immaturity.

The anaemic infant becomes later the dull child in school, who drops out early and goes to work in some routine way. No charity is more important than looking after the welfare of such little ones. If they could but have nourishing food to give them a good start, it would change their whole lives. It is a difficult philanthropy. There are too many frauds waiting to snap up all free gifts. But it should be better realized that the anaemic infant of to-day is the dull pupil of a few years from now, and very likely later the criminal and pauper.

DEVELOPING HEMP PLANT.

Experiments to develop better varieties of hemp by continued selection of Minnesota No. 8 variety of hemp have resulted in marked improvement, according to the annual report of the Bureau of Plant Industry. Those in charge of the work started with a plant 10 feet 5 inches high. The tallest plant in 1914 was 13 feet 4 inches, and in 1915 the tallest plant was 16 feet 8 inches high. The entire plot in 1914 averaged 3 feet 11 inches total height, and 4 feet 5 inches to alternate branches. In 1915 the average in total height was 12 feet 8 inches and 5 feet 9 inches to alternate branches. The marked improvement in the plants, especially in the uniform type with long internodes, indicated by the increased height to alternate branches, warrants a distinctive name. It is called "Kymington," indicating Kentucky seed improved by selection in Minnesota and Washington.

CONFIRMED TESTIMONY.

The Kind Paris Readers Cannot Doubt

Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test.

The test of time—the hardest test of all.

Thousands gratefully testify. To quick relief—to lasting results.

Paris readers can no longer doubt the evidence.

It's convincing testimony—twice told and well confirmed.

Paris readers should profit by these experiences.

Mrs. J. T. Martin, 1024 Main Street, Paris says: "Kidney trouble came on from a fall and the results were very severe, causing me more suffering than the fall itself. No one can ever know what I went through at that time, for I suffered awfully. My back ached and pained until I thought it would break in two. Sharp twinges shot through my kidneys and if some one had hit me in the back with a heavy axe, I wouldn't have known the difference. In one week after using Doan's Kidney Pills, I felt like a different woman, for they greatly benefited me." (Statement given February 17, 1908.)

RESULTS THAT REMAIN.

On November 9, 1916, Mrs. Martin said: "Doan's Kidney Pills have made a cure for me and it has been permanent."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Martin has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (adv)

LETTER FROM JUDGES OF COURT OF APPEALS.

FRANKFORT, KY., April 10, 1917.

To the People of Kentucky:—We believe that the study of God's Word is necessary to develop strong Christian character, that every person ought to have the blessings that result from such study, and that the Sunday School is an efficient agency for the promotion of systematic Bible study.

We note with interest the fact that the Kentucky Sunday School Association has designated Sunday, May 6, as the fourth "Go-To-Sunday-School Day," when it is expected that again one million people will attend the Sunday Schools of the State. We congratulate this Association upon the great work it has done in making greater and better Sunday Schools for a Greater and a Better Kentucky.

Believing implicitly in the great work that is being done in our Sunday Schools, and desirous of encouraging the efforts of those who are contributing their time, energy and money to this great cause, we unite in the invitation to all Kentuckians, as well as the visitors within our borders, to attend the Sunday School of their choice on May 6, 1917.

We hope that every Sunday School will so carefully observe this day that there may be the largest attendance ever known in the State, and that all visitors will receive such a cordial welcome they will become regular members of the Sunday School. Let us make this the beginning of a new era in the Sunday School work of Kentucky.

AGENT FOR BOURBON COUNTY CANNING CLUBS

Miss Mary Fithian Hutchcraft has been appointed the agent for the Canning Clubs of Bourbon County and is making splendid progress in the enrollment of members and the organization of clubs in the various school districts.

The appointment was requested by Miss Robbins, Bourbon's efficient and progressive County Superintendent, and the work is under the supervision of the Federal Department of Agriculture, and the Agricultural Extension Division of the State University co-operating.

Large clubs have already been organized at Kiser, Shawhan, Ruddles Mills, Dudley and Millersburg. Next week, Little Rock, North Middletown, Clay's Cross Roads, the Paris Home School and the Paris Public Schools will be canvassed for members.

Each girl cultivates or helps cultivate one-tenth of an acre, or about three hundred plants. She may sell fresh tomatoes, can them for home use, and can the best ones for a commercial product.

Cans for sale and marked by the 4H brand must come up to standard requirements as to weight, quality, sterilization, etc., and canning must be done under the supervision of the County Agent.

A little canning machine may be purchased for about $5 complete, with which an average girl can produce a large number of cans during the three weeks' canning season.

Okra, carrots, beans, butter beans, pears, peaches, etc., should all be put up this season for winter use, on account of the high prices.

The government is warning the country, through the press, by means of bulletins and official speeches, of the food shortage, of the possibility of even higher prices and food famine, and is urging the people to practice canning.

The Canning Club is a practical, simple, and interesting method of receiving free instruction and assistance.

Club members, who range from ten to eighteen years of age, are taught sewing, cooking and home sanitation, and Club meeting will have many interesting features, such as picnics, fishing parties, hay rides, etc.

Prizes will be given for the best products, and a school exhibit will be held in September.

Tomato seed, bulletins, and any information will be furnished gladly by the agent, Miss Hutchcraft, Phone 33.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN.

Cincinnati Authority Tells How to Dry Up a Corn or Callous So It Lifts Off With Fingers.

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of Freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn or callous, stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callous loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain. A small bottle of Freezone cost very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callous. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

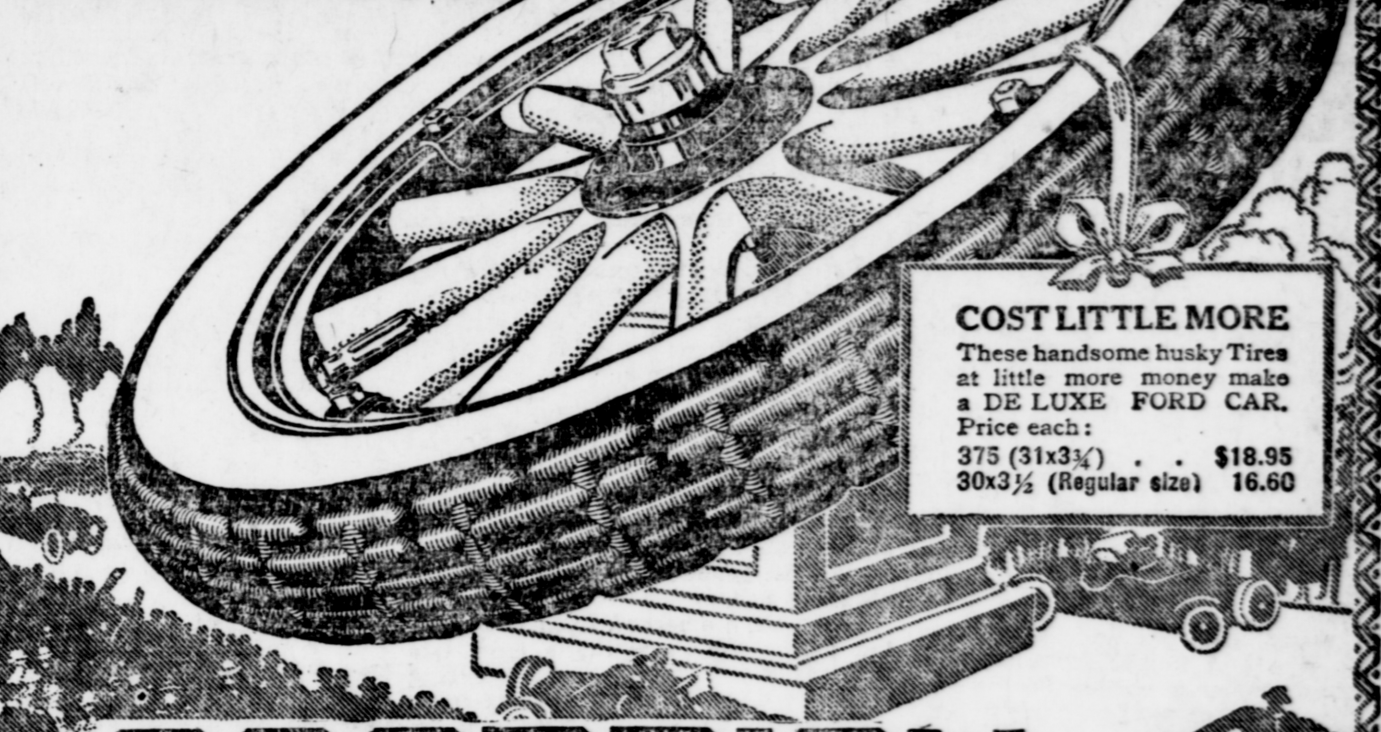

If your druggist hasn't any Freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you from his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time. (adv)

EVERYTHING GOING UP?

It is said that Paris boarding house keepers are seriously considering raising prices of board, owing to the high prices of all kinds of food supplies—and everything else—which are used on the table. In addition to the cost of material, servants are demanding higher wages, and as the summer excursion and camping season is close at hand, they are liable to assert their complete independence. Some restaurants have been gradually increasing their prices.

WHAT A COMMA WILL DO.

Even the lowly comma, when misplaced, may be the cause of disaster. Of this no better instance can be found than that where a printer, setting up a little story, asserts: "The two young men spent the early part of the evening with two young ladies; and after they left, the girls got drunk."

A soft answer may turn away wrath, but there are times when one derives more satisfaction from calling a man a liar.

BROUGHT COLOR BACK TO CHEEKS

Mother Tells What Tanlac Did
For Her Daughter.

SEEMS LIKE DIFFERENT GIRL

"This is the first winter in a long time that my daughter Louise has been entirely well, and I believe Tanlac is responsible for it," said Mrs. J. Y. Kirkpatrick, Fifteenth and High streets, Paris. She says:
"My daughter Louise was always delicate and every winter would have attacks of bronchial trouble. Her appetite was poor, and she was troubled with constipation. We would have to call a physician several times through the winter until we got Tanlac. She had a cough much of the time and was pale, nervous and irritable. We read a good many testimonials of Tanlac and finally got a bottle. It helped her right away. We noticed that she ate more."

"She took in all five bottles, also the tablets. She had no sick spell all the rest of the winter. This fall she commenced to run down again. We got another bottle, and this winter she has taken three and has had no sick spell at all. She seems to be built up. Her appetite is very good, and she is not nervous. She seems like a different child in that respect. We feel that the medicine is expensive, but still in the long run it is the best, as this is the first winter that we have not had to call a physician. Her color is good now, and she seems to be all right."

Tanlac, the master medicine and reconstructive tonic, is sold exclusively in PARIS by Varden & Son. Other exclusive agents in nearby towns are as follows:

CROSS ANDES IN THE AIR

The mighty Andean mountain range of South America, the highest in the western hemisphere, has just been crossed by aeronauts for the first time. The feat was accomplished by two men in a balloon. The aeronauts left Santiago, Chile, on the Pacific side, and descended five hours later in Mendoza, on the eastern slope of the range, in the Argentine Republic. They reported a very difficult trip, and had to rise to a great height to catch a favorable air current. So far the Andes have not been crossed by aeroplane.

A COMMERCIAL PRODUCT.

A commercial use for the periscope has recently been discovered by a mercantile establishment in Chicago. In its show window not long ago appeared a huge periscope, the eyepiece close against the window, and above it the sign, "Look! See the Exhibit in the Basement." A large crowd was soon gathered about the window. The way it was done was this: The shaft of the periscope was brought through the floor of the show window, below which a number of mirrors arranged in certain positions contrived to bring the display of goods in the basement into view of the people on the sidewalk above.

FORMER PARIS BOY GETS MERITED PROMOTION

The Rochester (N. Y.) Express, of a recent date, has an account of the promotion of former Parisian, Lucien Buck, who has been elevated to a fine position by the Parana Paper Company, with headquarters in Brazil.

Mr. Buck is a son of Mrs. Evelyn P. Buck, of Paris, and a brother of Mrs. John Yerkes, of this city. His father, the late Dr. O. H. Buck, was one of Bourbon's best known and most successful physicians.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck arrived in Paris yesterday for a brief visit with the former's mother, Mrs. E. P. Buck, and his sister, Mrs. John Yerkes, on Pleasant Street, before departing for their new home in Brazil.

The notice as published in the Rochester Express follows:

"Lucien Buck, purchasing engineer for the Eastman Kodak Company, with headquarters in this city, has resigned to become general manager of the Parana Paper Co., with headquarters in Curitiba, Parana, Brazil. The mill, which Mr. Buck will design in part and build, will be located at Morretes, not far from Curitiba. Mr. Buck leaves the Eastman Company to-day, but will remain in this city until April 1st, when he will remove to New York and about June 1st, accompanied by Mrs. Buck, will sail for Brazil. They will reside in Curitiba."

"Born and reared in the Blue Grass region of Kentucky, Mr. Buck is an honor graduate of the Millersburg Military Institute, and a graduate of the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering of the University of Kentucky. After graduation Mr. Buck was engaged for several years in civil engineering, including street, water works and sewer construction and maintenance, and as division transitman on maintenance and construction with the Louisville and Nashville railroad in Alabama. He was also with the United States government on the improvement of the Mississippi, as assistant engineer in topographic, hydrographic and right-of-way work."

"While making operation maps and timber surveys for one of the large pulp companies about ten years ago Mr. Buck became interested in the manufacture of paper. He has made a special study of the subject ever since, and in responsible charge of maintenance and engineering has been with some of the largest pulp and paper manufacturing companies in the United States. Immediately before coming to Rochester, Mr. Buck was chief engineer of the Champion Fibre Company, whose mills near Asheville, N. C., are the largest in the South."

"In 1913 Mr. Buck entered the employ of the Eastman Kodak Company as special engineer in charge of the design and construction of the Company's experimental paper mill at Kodak Park, and for three years has been purchasing engineer for the entire company. With a wide acquaintance and enviable reputation in the paper trade, Mr. Buck has lectured several times in this city and elsewhere on the manufacture of pulp and paper. In the recent convention number of 'Paper,' one of the technical journals in the trade, Mr. Buck had an exhaustive article on the manufacture of paper."

"The Parana Paper Company, of which Mr. Buck is to be the general manager and in which he is a stockholder, is composed of several large paper manufacturing interests in New York and Boston. He will have charge of the construction of the company's mill at Morretes, and will be its manager after completion."

"The position is considered important, as it involves the manufacture on a large scale of paper from a hitherto unused fibrous material. That the material can be so utilized has been demonstrated in a small mill that has been in operation for some time. The supply of the raw material is said to be practically inexhaustible. The company's product will be disposed of almost wholly in the South American trade."

Brighten Up, America!

WITH
PAINTS & VARNISHES

What a wonderful city we would have if every surface everywhere were brightened up with paints and varnishes! Think of the saving; the added comfort, cleanliness and beauty; increased values. But comfort, cleanliness, beauty and increased values are only by-products. The real, the greatest return on your paint investment is protection; protection against hot Summer suns and cold

Wintry blasts. Weather destroys more houses each year than fire or flood. Government figures show one house out of four destroyed every year by decay through ravages of weather. How important it is, then, that we insure our own homes against this insidious destroyer, decay, by proper painting. Sherwin-Williams Paints and Varnishes are your best insurance policy.

Brightening Up our city is not a big undertaking, if every property owner does his little part. Paint your house inside and out; protect and beautify every surface in and around your home. It will benefit the city, the neighborhood, and most of all, it will benefit you. There is a Sherwin-Williams Paint, Stain, Varnish or Enamel for every surface that requires protecting or beautifying. No matter what you want to finish, from painting your house to touching up a piece of furniture, we can supply you with just the right finish to produce the most lasting, beautiful and satisfactory results.

Bring your brighten up problems to us—we will gladly solve them for you.

STATE CONSTABULARY MAY BE ESTABLISHED.

A report current here Wednesday in military circles and said to have emanated from Federal sources, was that Kentucky and other States will be urged to establish constabulary forces for police duties within their borders as soon as all military units have been taken into the Federal ranks.

If the National Guard should continue picket duty along railroads and at other scattered stations, there would only be a small percentage left for Government service, and training at the mobilization camps would be out of the question.

It was reported that United States deputy marshals would be sent to take the place of the soldiers now guarding bridges, tunnels and other points along the lines of railways in Kentucky.

PROPER FOOD FOR WEAK STOMACHS

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Every one should adopt a diet suitable to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

MANY MILES OF TOBACCO CANVAS IN BOURBON.

Along with the blushing and halting appearance of Spring has come the appearance of miles and miles of white tobacco cotton which covers the beds which will furnish the plants for what promises to be the largest production of tobacco that Kentucky has ever attempted. Among many other beds in Bourbon county is an unusually large one located in the middle of a field that will probably be set out in tobacco. The idea seems a good one, and will doubtless prove a labor-saving arrangement.

ROAD TO HAPPINESS.

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

SENATE ADOPTS RESOLUTION URGING FOOD CONSERVATION

In the Senate at Frankfort last week Mr. Bradley introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted by the Senate:

"Senate Resolution urging Kentuckians to increase the production of food products and to conserve the State's resources—

"Whereas, Almost the entire world is at war, and millions of men have laid down the implements of peace and equipped themselves with the implements of war, and it now seems that the civilized world is to be drawn in the horrible conflict; and,

"Whereas, The desertion of the various walks of life by the many men engaged in warfare has brought about a great shortage of foodstuffs; and,

"Whereas, America has been called upon not only to sustain herself, but to feed a large portion of the world, thereby causing a great drain upon the markets of this country, and, consequently, causing an unprecedented increase in the price of every article grown;

"Therefore, Be it Resolved by the Senate of the Commonwealth of Kentucky: That it is the sense of this body that every citizen of this Commonwealth should, and it is his patriotic duty, to devote his attention to the production of foodstuffs, and to cultivate every available spot of land that is not now in cultivation for the purpose of enlarging the production of foodstuffs, not only for the use of the citizens of Kentucky, but as a means of aiding America in waging and winning the present war. If America is to see Democracy triumph and is to be of the greatest assistance in bringing victory to herself and her allies, it is absolutely necessary for every citizen of this country to add his mite in any possible manner to aid in waging the war. People in all walks of life realize that the most important matter to be considered at this time is the feeding of the warring nations; and,

"Therefore, Be it further Resolved, That every member of the Senate transmit a copy of this resolution to each and every newspaper published in his district with the request that the said newspaper publish this resolution calling upon Kentucky's citizens to cultivate every available spot of ground for the purpose of enlarging the production of foodstuffs.

"Be it further Resolved, That the clerks of the Senate are hereby instructed to have three hundred copies of this resolution printed and deliver a copy to each newspaper representative attending this legislative session.

"Be it further Resolved, That the Commissioner of Agriculture be given a copy of this resolution and that he use every means available to transmit the message herein contained to the farmers of the Commonwealth and that he urge every citizen of the Commonwealth to produce the greatest amount of foodstuffs this year to conserve their resources and refrain from waste and that he lend every assistance to each and every individual of the Commonwealth in raising Kentucky's quota of food products."

SPRING RACES OPEN AT LEXINGTON TRACK

The spring racing season was inaugurated in Lexington, Saturday, at the Kentucky Association track at Lexington, with a good card and a big attendance. A light rain fell early making the track a trifle slow. A crowd taxing the capacity of the plant was on hand to witness the inaugural events.

The element of chief interest was the presence of the Kentucky Derby eligibles. In the inaugural dash Westy Hogan was pitted against Chalmers, Bringham, Vogue, Dimitri and others capable of making him show his best.

Manager Wm. Shelley had everything in perfect shape for the big opening. Seventeen pari-mutual machines were in operation under the supervision of Mr. John B. McLaughlin, of Lexington, who succeeded the late "Hops" Landeman.

The Paris and Bourbon county delegates were lucky in getting down on Arthur B. Hancock's great racer, Embroidery, which captured The Phoenix Hotel Handicap in 1:44 4-5. Embroidery paid in the two-dollar mutuels $10.50 to win; $5.00 place, and $2.50 show.

RESOLUTIONS OF COUNCIL ON DEATH OF W. A. WALLEN.

PARIS, KY., April 27, 1917. The following resolution was passed at a called meeting of the City Council:

The Mayor having called the Board of Council together on account of the untimely and unexpected death of our fellow member, W. A. Wallen, which occurred this morning, Therefore be it Resolved, By the Mayor and Board of Council, in special session assembled, that we deeply deplore the lamentable circumstances that have so suddenly called W. A. Wallen from our midst.

Be it further Resolved, That we express both to the public and to his family our appreciation of his faithfulness in the discharge of his duties as a member of this body and his unswerving loyalty as a public servant.

We have always found him willing and ready to assume the responsibilities of his office and able to discharge them to the public good. His death deprives the city of a most efficient official and a citizen whose integrity and usefulness will be a severe loss to this community.

Be it further Resolved, That we extend to Mrs. Wallen and his family our sincerest sympathy in this deep bereavement, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the City Council and a copy be sent to the family and also to the newspapers of the city.
